NEWSLETTER OF THE TEXAS SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL GUILD

FALL 2023

Greetings From New Guild President Linda Crabtree

It's FINALLY fall in East Texas! And to those of us who love all things TSF, that means the Roadshow is here! It was exciting to be able to welcome them with balloons, noisemakers, hugs and small gifts to show our gratitude. There is an incredible amount of talent in these ten gifted artists – and for a short time, at least, they're ours! During the time they are here, they will share a wealth of knowledge and enthusiasm for theater with many students and teachers in a way that inspires them to learn more. On this welcome evening, they spent a while visiting with us, then had a "Grab and Go" dinner, put together by Claudia and Weldon Gray. According to Meaghan, Roadshow alumni look forward to this tradition, and new company members get a pleasant introduction to Guild hospitality. This was a great start to this year's Festival and Guild activities. This is also a special anniversary year for the Guild; more information to come about that later!

OUR GUILD IS 30 NEXT YEAR – Three decades strong!

In 1994, the Texas Shakespeare Festival was in its 9th season. Forward-thinking Festival lovers founded the Guild to ensure the Festival's future beyond its first decade and the generous support of Kilgore College.

Guiding the Development Committee were Delisa Barbee, Sue Brown, Amanda Nobles, Martha Rorschach, and Ellen Watson. Their efforts gave life to the non-profit TSF Foundation, organized to raise funds, and its Guild Committee, organized to raise friends and volunteers.

They launched a Guild membership drive in fall 1994, and 391 individuals from 25 Texas cities and 4 states responded--our charter members.

The Development Committee also recruited 31 additional volunteers to lead the board and committees during 1994 and 1995.

In 2024, the Guild and Foundation will celebrate their 30th anniversary. We invite you to join us in honoring our Charter members, of whom 64 individuals from 8 Texas cities and 3 states are still loyal Guild supporters.

As we celebrate the 30th for the Guild, we will also ask Guild members, 1994-2024 to share your fondest TSF memories in anticipation of the Texas Shakespeare Festival's 40th anniversary season in 2025!

Get your stories ready; we want to revisit the Guild's birth AND its growth to maturity. There are bound to be some good tales to be told!

"I could match this beginning with an old tale." As You Like It, Act I, Scene 2.

A Labor of Love

from Karen Peters, Past President

Two years ago, I accepted the office of President of the Texas Shakespeare Festival Guild, a committee of the Texas Shakespeare Festival Foundation. I was apprehensive because I wasn't at all sure what I was doing. Two years before that I was the President-Elect. Wouldn't you know it? The first year there was not a Shakespeare Festival due to the COVID pandemic! The next year, the season was abbreviated because of the continuing pandemic. And then, I find myself in charge of the Guild and its many activities without all the usual training period experiences.

My fears were unfounded! I was overwhelmed by the willingness of the Guild members to help with anything and everything. All I had to do was ask, and people responded. Thank you to everyone who made the past two years so successful! I credit the TSF Guild members for two very successful seasons. Thank you!

TSF Roadshow

The TSF Roadshow is back for the ninth season! This fall, the company will perform Shakespeare's Romeo & Juliet directed by Matthew Simpson and Shakespeare's Greatest Hits directed by Jason Richards. TSF alums, Nicholas DiPuma, Eliza Pagelle and Alice Wilkinson will be in the company along with Chesney Jones serving as the Stage Manager. Newcomers Ashlyn Evans and Adam Koda join for their first seasons. The company will tour East Texas for three weeks followed by

Guild at Longview ArtWalk

On Thursday, Oct. 5, TSF Guild members joined the many exhibitors and vendors at downtown Longview's Fall ArtWalk. Volunteers engaged attendees with information about both the Festival and the Guild. Kate Wells organized our volunteers, who manned the table from 4:30 until about 7:30 when darkness fell. Members who spent time at the Guild information table were Louise Cochran, D'Anna Yastrobov, Karen and Ron Peters, Kate Wells, and Martha Dalby. There was a great crowd for this event, and Guild volunteers were glad to visit with those passing by our area, give out information about TSF organizations, answer questions, and provide a cheerful presence on our designated corner at Tyler and Fredonia Streets.

residencies in Wichita Falls and at the Globe of the Great Southwest in Odessa, Texas.

Membership Matters

From Sharon Noblit,
TSF Guild President-Elect

By renewing your membership, you can volunteer to be a greeter or an usher at The Texas Shakespeare Festival. YOU make July the best month as Kilgore comes alive with the theater! It is my favorite time—getting to see friends from all over, making new ones with those in attendance, and proudly wearing my Guild Member sticker.

A list of those who have renewed for 2024 as well as our new members is attached to the electronic copy of this newsletter along with a membership form. You can also renew online at www.texasshakespeare.com/join-the-guild. You will receive a Welcome card with a personal note from me because YOU are so important to a successful season. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email me at palyanniblue@yahoo.com or call 903-720-2297. The new season awaits, and I look forward to meeting you in person!

Romeo & Juliet Co-Production

The most famous literary lovers, Romeo and Juliet, will take the stage this winter in the Van Cliburn Auditorium. In a unique co-production, the Texas Shakespeare Festival will join forces with Kilgore College Theatre to create a show with both professionals and students. Directed by Matthew Simpson and featuring TSF alums Travis Ascione, Laura Brennan, Sean Dale, and Sasha Hildebrand, Romeo & Juliet will perform February 28th-March 3rd. Tickets are $20 for TSF patrons and $10 for students and can be purchased online at www.texasshakespeare.tix.com.

Wine & Wassail—SOLD OUT!

This special evening of delicious wine and food accompanied by Christmas carols performed by the TSF Roadshow company is already SOLD OUT after just the Green Group notice, etc. This one-night-only holiday event will be on Friday, December 8th at 6:30 p.m. at Britt's Wine and Dine in Kilgore, Texas. There will be mingling and cocktails, heavy hors d'oeuvres served at 7:00, and the holiday music program at 7:30. Thanks to everyone who generously purchased tickets to support this program. Looking forward to good times, good food and drink, and great entertainment—

You can join a wait list for this event by an email to info@texasshakespeare.com

TSF 2024 Season

Join the Green Group—for Three Reasons

If you have not yet joined the “Green Group” by signing up to receive The Stratford Tribune newsletter via email rather than through regular postal service, please consider doing it today for three reasons:

- (1) it saves the Guild substantial cost in printing and postage;
- (2) it allows you to receive a greatly enhanced version of the newsletter, including full-color pictures; and
- (3) it includes you on the Festival’s email list, which lets you receive more timely notifications of many TSF activities.

And there is a fourth reason, too: it saves trees!

•Green Group —You will receive the TSF newsletters via email and occasional correspondence about Festival activities. Examples of these might be information about the Lunch Bunch, TSF Foundation, raffles, and special TSF events. These emails might be informative or request help with events, etc. and will not be excessive. We do not share your email address with other entities.

To join the Green Group, send an email to LEKnouse2020@outlook.com. Please be sure to include your name. Sometimes it is difficult to identify you by your email address.

ROADSHOW SNAPSHOTS

Much Ado About Nothing

BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

Much Ado About Nothing is actually about... everything. Featuring two of Shakespeare's most memorable characters Beatrice and Benedick, battling in the name of love, friendship, respect, dignity, and what happens when you are on the brink of losing them.

What to Expect: This is one of Shakespeare's most masterful romantic comedies, featuring relatable relationships, witty wordplay, and silly slapstick.

You'll Love it if you Loved: The Comedy of Errors (2023), The Taming of the Shrew (2022), The Merry Wives of Windsor (2021)

Rating: PG

JULIUS CAESAR

BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

In a political landscape, jealousy and conspiracy have driven many to believe that Julius Caesar poses a threat to democracy. Taking matters into their own hands, Caesar's allies revolt and murder him, leading to an eventual civil war.

What to Expect: A political drama that, despite being written over 400 years ago, is shockingly relatable today. Some heightened language and violence make it less suitable for all audiences.

You'll Love it if you Loved: Lear (2023), Born Yesterday (2019)
Romeo & Juliet (2021)

Rating: PG-13

Peter and the Starcatcher

BY RICK ELICE WITH MUSIC BY WAYNE BARKER

The Tony-winning play based on the best-selling novels, Peter and the Starcatcher upends the century-old story of how a miserable orphan boy becomes the legendary Peter Pan.

What to Expect: Peter and the Starcatcher delivers everything you would expect in a Peter Pan tale—and more! Featuring pirates, swordfights, and lost boys brought to life with creative theatricality, music, and humor.

You'll Love it if you Loved: Something Rotten! (2023), Nell Gwynn (2022), The Book of Will (2021)

Rating: PG

SWEENEY TODD

MUSIC & LYRICS BY STEPHEN SONDHEIM
BOOK BY HUGH WHEELER

Sweeney Todd, an unjustly exiled barber, returns to London, seeking vengeance against the lecherous judge who framed him and ravaged his young wife. The road to revenge leads Todd to Mrs. Lovett, a resourceful proprietress of a failing pie shop, above which, he opens a new barber practice. Mrs. Lovett's luck sharply shifts when Todd's thirst for blood inspires the integration of an ingredient into her meat pies that has the people of London lining up... and the carnage has only just begun!

What to Expect: A dark, witty tale of love, murder and revenge set against the backdrop of 19th century London. Some sharp language and violence make it less suitable for all audiences.

You'll Love it if you Loved: Lear (2023), Nell Gwynn (2022), Into the Woods (2019)

Rating: PG-13
